

December 2022 Nature Program Schedule

Sat., Dec 3: Docent led nature walk of the “Ricardo Nature Trail.” Learn about various plants and flowers along with the small animals and how they adapted to the harsh desert environment. Meet at the Ricardo Trailhead across from the visitor center at 9 a.m.

Sat., Dec 10: Docent led nature hike titled “A Walk Through Time”. You will gain information about weather changes, extinct and present wildlife, Native American uses of plants, and geological make up of Red Rock Canyon. Meet at the Desert View Trailhead near campsite 50 at 9 a.m.

Sat., Dec 17: Docent led nature hike titled “A Walk Through Time”. You will gain information about weather changes, extinct and present wildlife, Native American uses of plants, and geological make up of Red Rock Canyon. Meet at the Desert View Trailhead near campsite 50 at 9 a.m.

Sat., Dec 17: Campfire program on “Colors of the Desert”. Here, you will learn about the natural and cultural history of the park and see how all the different seasons create beautiful colors at Red Rock Canyon. Meet at the amphitheater near the Visitor Center at sunset. Bring warm clothing!

Sat. Dec 24: Docent led nature walk titled “A Walk Through Time”. You will gain information about weather changes, extinct and present wildlife, Native American uses of plants, and geological make up of Red Rock Canyon. Meet at the Desert View Trailhead near campsite 50 at 9 a.m.

Sat., Dec 31: Docent led nature walk of the “Ricardo Nature Trail.” Learn about various plants and flowers along with the small animals and how they adapted to the harsh desert environment. Meet at the Ricardo Trailhead across from the visitor center at 9 a.m.

REMINDER PROGRAMS ARE SUBJECT TO CANCELLATION WITHOUT NOTICE