

October 2024 Interpretive Schedule

Saturday, October 5: Docent led nature walk from the “Ricardo Visitor Center.” Learn about various plants and their flowers along with the small animals and how they adapted to the harsh desert environment as well as the geologic history of Red Rock Canyon. Meet at the Ricardo Visitor Center at 9:00 A.M.

Saturday, October 12: Docent led nature walk from the “Ricardo Visitor Center.” Learn about various plants and their flowers along with the small animals and how they adapted to the harsh desert environment. Meet at the Ricardo Visitor Center at 10:00 A.M.

Saturday, October 19: Docent led nature walk from the “Ricardo Visitor Center.” Learn about various plants and their flowers along with the small animals and how they adapted to the harsh desert environment. Meet at the Ricardo Visitor Center at 9:00 A.M.

Saturday, October 26: Docent led nature walk titled “A Walk Through Time.” You will gain information about weather changes, extinct and present wildlife, Native American uses of plants, and geological make up of Red Rock Canyon. Meet at the Desert View Trailhead near campsite 50 at 9:00 A.M.

REMINDER PROGRAMS ARE SUBJECT TO CANCELLATION WITHOUT NOTICE